UA 400 Pipe Trades Announces New Business Manager and Staff

Kaukauna, WI (January 31, 2023) – Doug Dokey, a 23-year member of Plumbers and Steamfitters UA Local 400 has been named as the group's Business Manager effective January 1, 2023. A veteran who earned a plumbing apprenticeship after serving in the U.S. Army, Dokey's years of experience include working 15 years as a field foreman and five years as a UA 400 business agent. In his new role, Dokey will manage the daily administration and operation of UA 400 and its 2,400 members, oversee as Chairman of the group's Health and Welfare Fund and Fox River Education Foundation, and serve as trustee on the UA 400 Pension and 401k Funds. UA 400 holds an election every three years allowing its members to vote on new officers.

Mike Augustian, a UA 400 member since 1990 and journeyman steamfitter, has been named business agent for the group. Over the past 25 years, Augustian has previously served as the UA 400 assistant business manager, an authorized testing representative and UA 400 night instructor. Augustian also previously worked as a piping estimator for Tweet/Garot Mechanical. In his new position, Augustian's responsibilities include market recovery administrator, director of the Heat's On Program and Salvation Army coordinator.

Hillary Healy has been named as the new Office Professional. Healy attended Northeast Wisconsin Technical College and previously worked as a Maintenance Coordinator at Team Industries.
